Deo Enterprise. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 496 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.8in. x 1.3in. A 490 page romantic novel of great characters; a tantalizing tale of irresistible love, obsession, family values, and forced marriage; an utmost quake to the foundations of a close knit family. This is a story of an established noble family on Silvercroft Avenue in Birmingham, which was so particular about generation and traditional norms of marriage. It illustrates the struggle of a young breath-taking beauty, Queenie Austin-Ward, who contested her familys predestined judgment of attempting to force her to tie the knots with heir Karl Chester, the man she despised with immeasurable apathy. The eldest of two, Queenie was showered with every speck of fondness and affection under the sun. Heir Karl Chester was the son of the predominant lord who owned the Castle East of the Austin-Wards. The only son of lord Mackay and lady Blossom Chester, his life was not completely different from that of Queenie. It was flourished and doting. Prologue: Alone without his immediate family, lord Austin-Ward was espoused by the preceding John and Caroline Chesters, (heir Karls grandparents), who took him on as their own child when his uncle neglected him. He grew up with Mackay Chester who was two years younger than he was. By way of rewarding the family for their support towards his upbringing, he vowed to give into marriage his daughter, born seven years after the birth of heir Karl Chester. It was an agreement, which was sealed when Queenie was a tot, far from making decisions on her own. Heir Karl Chester was made aware of this plan at a tender age. He welcomed it with all enthusiasm and as he matured, the thought was nurtured within him. He set his eyes on Queenie; saw her...
