GOVERNANCE OF FOOD SECURITY POLICIES IN INDIA

2016. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 276 pages. English Public Policies, in India, are broadly of two types; policies which can alter the existing unequal socio economic structure and policies which are of incremental nature. Policies like land reforms, if enforced effectively, belong to the first category, while Food Security Policies like Targeted Public Distribution System belong to the second category and do not affect the unequal social-economic structure. Though food security policies are in operation for several decades, they have...
