Summers with Grampa Gus (Paperback)

By Beth S Koraido

America Star Books, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What do Benjamin Franklin, John Hancock, Colonel Edwin Drake, and Gus E. Gustafson all have in common? They all enter and open up a whole new world for nine-year-old Maddy Turner on summer vacation. Maddy, whose father was killed in a tragic car accident, reluctantly spends the summer with her grandfather in historic Titusville, Pennsylvania. Leading the simple life with Grampa Gus is a grand adventure until tragedy again strikes in Maddy's life. Will Maddy survive this latest tragedy? And what do red doors, cheerleading and annoying church bells have to do with all of this?.
