It is thus related by the Bishop. Yesterday, the 6th of August, I passed a very pleasant day at Shrewsbury House, near Shooters Hill the residence of the Princess Charlotte of Wales, Wales. The day was fine; and the prospect extensive and beautiful, taking in a large reach of the Thames, which was covered with vessels of various sizes and descriptions. We saw a good deal of the young Princess. She is a most captivating and engaging child, and, considering the high station she may hereafter fill, a most interesting and important one. She repeated to me several of her hymns with great correctness and propriety; and on being told, that, when she went to South-End in Essex, as she afterwards did for the benefit of sea-bathing, she would then be in my Diocese, she fell down on her knees and begged my blessing. I gave it her with all my heart, and with my earnest secret prayers to God, that she might adorn her illustrious station with every Christian grace; and that, if ever. M she she became the Queen of this truly great and glorious country, she might be the means of diffusing virtue, piety, and happiness through every part of her dominions! Soon after this incident occurred, the Bishop went, as usual, to his little cottage at Sundridge. It has been already stated, that on his accession to the See of London, he was obliged very reluctantly...
