Tech and the City: The Making of New York s Startup Community (Paperback)

By Alessandro Piol, Maria Teresa Cometto

Mirandola Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Over 1,000 New York-based technology startups are currently hiring. This may come as a surprise to many who thought of New York as the capital of traditional industries such as financial services, media, advertising and fashion, but not necessarily as a high-tech hub. Yet, it is true: over the past several years the level of startup activity in the city of New York has increased at an exponential rate, reaching and surpassing Boston in number of tech companies formed and money invested. It is good news for the Bloomberg administration that has made the creation of a high-tech industry a strategic priority after the financial collapse of 2008. It is also good news for the many investors in the city (both angels and venture capitalists) who have seen the number of opportunities created increase at a fast rate. And it is good news for the entrepreneurs who can finally benefit from a working ecosystem and from an influx of capital not seen since the internet bubble of the late 90s. Tech and the City is the first...
