Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Historical Review of the First Presbyterian Church of Blackwood: A Sermon Judging from such names as Blackwood, Fisher, McCulloch, Flanigan, some of them were either Scotch or Scotch Irish. Others were from Wales, as the Morgan family, and others were from England. But they were all of the stuff necessary to lay foundations of liberty, and truth, and integrity, and strength for the future to build upon. They were determined to make a living for themselves in the almost unbroken wilderness, and at the same time to maintain their spiritual life by the observance of the public worship of God. We cannot tell when these early settlers first united in their worship, or where they held their first services. No doubt these services were held in some private dwelling, perhaps in a log cabin; and as John Blackwood came from Presbyterian Scotland, no doubt they sang the old Scotch version of the Psalms to such tunes as Martyrs, Elgin, Dundee and French - good psalms and good tunes for strong, sturdy, pious souls. We know...
